Denise is an Executive Coach and Facilitator for FranklinCovey Australia and New Zealand. She has a strong corporate background, which she effectively uses to relate to client situations and speak their language. Denise has been working closely with large organisations across a range of leadership levels to improve their business performance for over 20 years, and her list of clients include Calibre, Curtin University, Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development, IMDEX, Perth Airport, and St. Barbara Gold Mine.

Denise's ability to help others create meaningful change that aligns with their individual and organisational goals is one of her strengths. Her style is compassionate whilst ensuring individuals are encouraged to meet new challenges. Denise's ability to inspire reflection and stimulate personal insights are important components to her coaching and facilitation philosophy.

Denise has a solid background in Strengths Based Leadership, Emotional Intelligence, and Positive Psychology, which she uses across both executive coaching and corporate facilitation to develop lasting behavioural change.
