A strong communicator and high energy facilitator, Midja Fisher has a keen interest in leadership and team performance and is passionate about providing practical solutions that deliver value to the business.

Midja holds degrees in Law (with Honours) and Information Technology and boasts an extensive career in the legal profession as a solicitor and corporate facilitator. She also holds a Diploma of Coaching.

Midja is a lawyer and former partner of Shine Lawyers, an ASX listed company and one of Australia's largest compensation law firms. She started her career as an IT consultant at Price Waterhouse before finding her passion in law and learning and development.

She is a committee member of the Queensland Law Society and well-known leader in the legal profession.

Midja has been facilitating Franklin Covey programs for over 15 years, both inhouse at Shine Lawyers and more recently as a consultant.

Midja has partnered with organisations across multiple sectors including: legal, finance, engineering & construction, IT, insurance, sport, education and professional services.

Her clients include Ashurst, Qld Law Society, WSP, North QLD Toyota Cowboys, QLD RSL and PKF Accountants.

Midja is the author of three leadership books and was nominated for the Telstra Business Women's award in 2017.
